

ANSWER

Round: 14A

1. What is the name of the alphabet that is used for radio transmissions in plain language or code? Phonetic alphabet (1 pt)
2. The US Navy uses the following pendants to indicate specific numbers. Match the pendant with the correct number. (1 pt each - 4pts total)

a. Number 0	1. 	1 OR b
b. Number 1	2. 	5 OR c
c. Number 5	3. 	0 OR a
d. Number 6	4. 	6 OR d

3. What do the following flags mean?
- a. A single, solid red triangle flag means? Small Craft Warning (1pt)
- b. A solid white square flag means? Dinner (1pt)
- c. Two solid red flags with a single black square in the middle of each means? Hurricane (1pt)
4. What shape is a repeater flag? Pendant or triangle (1pt)
5. The answering pendant is also used as what when sending numeric data? Decimal point (1pts)

6. Match the following flags to the correct message and letter in the alphabet:

a. Maneuvering with difficulty – letter “D”	1. 	d. OR Y
b. I’m on Fire or have dangerous cargo – letter “J”	2. 	c. OR Z
c. I require a tug – letter “Z”	4. 	b. OR J
d. I’m dragging an anchor (international) – letter “Y”	5. 	a. OR D

7. Using the colored pencils provided, draw the flag and label the colors that indicate the following activity or situation is occurring when the flag is flown?
- a. Man overboard

Square flag/diagonal design – yellow left bottom / red right top (2pts)

- b. Medical Assistance is required

Square flag with three square colors – outside rim blue, middle square white and red center square/block (2pts)

c. Divers

Red rectangle flag with a wide white stripe down the center – from top left to bottom right corner OR A-Alpha (diver below, when stationary) (2pts)

OR

References:

<http://www.flagsofchoice.com/cat51.htm>

http://www.sailorschoice.com/seamanship/alphabet_pennants.htm

http://www.sailorschoice.com/seamanship/number_pennants.htm

<http://www.marine waypoints.com/learn/flags/flags.shtml>