

Round: 14A

- 1. What is the name of the alphabet that is used for radio transmissions in plain language or code? (1 pt)
- 2. The US Navy uses the following pendants to indicate specific numbers. Match the numbers to the correct pendant. (4pts)

a. Number 0

1.

b. Number 1

2.

c. Number 5

3.

d. Number 6

4.

- 3. What do the following flags mean? (3 pts)
 - a. A single, solid red triangle flag?
 - b. A solid white square flag?
 - c. Two solid red flags with a single black square in the middle of each?
- 4. What shape is a repeater flag? (1pt)
- 5. The answering pendant is also used as what when sending numeric data? (1pt)
- 6. Match the following message and letter in the alphabet to the correct flag. (4 pts)

a. Maneuvering with difficulty – letter “D”

1.

b. I’m on Fire or have dangerous cargo– letter “J”

2.

c. I require a tug – letter “Z”

4.

d. I’m dragging an anchor (international) – letter “Y”

5.

- 7. Using the colored pencils provided, draw the flag and label the colors that indicate the following activity or situation is occurring when the flag is flown? (6pts)
 - a. Man overboard
 - b. Medical assistance is required
 - c. Divers